

Chinese Language Program for International Students

Spring Semester 2027 at Shandong University

山东大学 2027 年春季学期中文研修项目

国际学生招生简章

I. Program Overview

This program is designed for international learners to develop solid Chinese listening, speaking, reading and writing skills as well as translation competence. Upon completion of the program, participants will improve their overall Chinese proficiency, gain insights into Chinese culture and China's social-economic development, and build strong intercultural-communication competence.

No prior Chinese proficiency is required for admission. Upon arrival, all participants will take a Chinese placement test. Students will be assigned to beginner-level, intermediate-level or advanced-level classes based on their test results. Classes are delivered in small-group format, with a maximum class size of 20 students in principle.

2. Elective Courses

In addition to language courses, a variety of cultural experience courses are offered to help students deepen their understanding of China and its rich culture. The specific courses are arranged based on student interests and enrollment numbers each semester.

Course Module	Course	Enrollment Requirements	Course Introduction
Language Support Courses	Chinese Pronunciation Correction	Open to all students	This course reviews the Chinese phonetic system and focuses on practicing challenging Chinese-pronunciation points to help students achieve more accurate, authentic pronunciation and enhance their oral fluency.
	HSK Counseling	Open to all students	This course is aligned with the HSK exam syllabus. Through mock tests and segmented explanations, it analyzes the key points and difficulties of the HSK exam, helps learners familiarize themselves with HSK question types, prepares them for the HSK exam during the learning process, and improves their exam-taking skills and comprehensive Chinese proficiency.
Chinese + Professional Courses	Business Chinese	HSK Level 4	This course centers on real-world business scenarios such as job applications, onboarding, and business negotiations. It helps students master core business-related vocabulary and expressions, build basic Chinese communicative competence for workplace settings, gain an understanding of Chinese business culture, and lay a solid foundation for their future study and work.
	Traditional Chinese sports games	Open to all students	This course features traditional Chinese folk games such as rubber-band jumping, shuttlecock-kicking, diabolo- spinning and Chinese chess, helping students acquire relevant Chinese vocabulary and daily expressions, develop practical communication skills, and gain insights into traditional Chinese customs and sports culture.
	Traditional Cultural Experience	Open to all students	Course Content: Hands-on experience of traditional Chinese cultural activities including paper-cutting and tea ceremony. This course offers exposure to traditional Chinese culture and its classical aesthetic appeal. Guided by instructors, students will engage in practical hands-on creation and appreciate the cultural charm behind these traditional crafts.

Course Module	Course	Enrollment Requirements	Course Introduction
Cultural-experience courses	Elementary Classic Recitation	Open to all students	This course selects classic Chinese poems and excerpts from renowned literary works. Through reading-and-imitation exercises, recitation, chanting and situational performance, students appreciate the aesthetic charm and humanistic spirit embodied in classical Chinese language. The course also improves students' Chinese expressive competence and stimulates their interest in Chinese-language learning.
	Peking-Opera Appreciation & Performance	HSK Level 4	In this course, students will learn two classic excerpts from Peking Opera. They will appreciate selected scenes from Zha Mei-an and gain an in-depth understanding of the artistic beauty of Peking Opera's four core skills: singing, recitation, acting and acrobatics. Through studying selected arias from Hong Niang, students will experience the vocal charm and stylistic features of the Peking Opera Dan role, as well as the distinctive artistic appeal of water-sleeve movements in traditional Chinese opera.
	Tai Chi	Open to all students	Learn the basic routines and movements of "24-Style Tai Chi", and understand the spirit of Chinese Wushu and Tai Chi culture through learning and practice.
Chinese-Plus Practical Courses	Green China: Documentary on Environmental Protection in China	HSK Level 5	Through site visits and hands-on experience with Ant Forest, students will learn Chinese expressions concerning ecological protection, green industries and low-carbon lifestyles. Via observation, interviews and documentation, students will witness real-world examples of Green-China initiatives in Jinan and develop an informed understanding of contemporary ecological-civilization development in China.
